ABOUT STEFFANIE

Steffanie Pasquale is a detail-oriented litigator protecting businesses in Florida. She brings a unique blend of legal knowledge and strong communication skills to her professional relationships. Valuing professionalism and thorough preparedness, Steffanie remains ready for any scenario, question, or issue that her clients may face.

Steffanie focuses her practice on civil defense and personal injury litigation. She gained valuable, hands-on trial experience and advocacy skills as the vice president of her law school's Trial Advocacy Board. She is methodical, thoughtful, and collaborative in her approach to the law.

Steffanie was born in New York and raised in Orlando, Florida. Outside of her practice, she creates educational content on social media, blending her legal career with storytelling and mentoring law students. Steffanie also enjoys cozy nights at home, whether baking or cooking, with her fiancé, Logan, and her dog, Obie.
