ABOUT VAMSI

Vamsi Karanam is an attorney in Galloway's Jacksonville office, where he focuses his practice on general liability and commercial litigation. He partners with businesses across Florida on a range of matters, including business litigation and general liability defense, advising clients on disputes with a steady, practical approach.

Vamsi has previous experience in construction litigation, commercial litigation, and real estate matters. His background provides him with familiarity in the legal and business challenges that arise in contentious Florida litigation.

Known for his persistence and even-keeled demeanor, Vamsi approaches each matter with a focus on consistency and follow-through. He efficiently collaborates with colleagues and clients from initial evaluation through favorable resolution.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, and raised in Jacksonville, Florida, Vamsi enjoys playing basketball, reading, and watching sports outside of his practice.
