ABOUT WILLIAM

Over the last 25 years, William Large has developed skills in a wide variety of legal disciplines. His primary focus is commercial litigation, and he has an affinity especially for eDiscovery. He has been the eDiscovery leader for many cases with enormous amounts of data, including the Deepwater Horizon class action in which he managed the discovery of 19 TB of data.

William has had prominent leadership roles in many class actions and Multidistrict Litigation. His litigation experience, in state and federal courts throughout the country, includes diverse matters such as antitrust, energy transportation regulation, environmental pollution, and intra-corporate disputes.

After graduating with a B.S. from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a J.D. from Harvard Law School, William served as a law clerk on the Ninth Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals for the Hon. Andrew J. Kleinfeld.
