

Lindsay Meador Young | Director

Lindsay Meador Young's primary area of practice is general litigation, including insurance defense, insurance coverage, premises liability, title, real estate, and family law. Lindsay's experience also includes the litigation of title and real estate disputes. She handles matters including analyzing and resolving claims involving mortgage validity, lien priority disputes and acquisitive prescription, as well as quieting title to immovable property and reforming conveyance instruments. Her family law practice is comprised of divorce and dissolution, prenuptial agreements, child custody and support, and division of assets/liabilities.

Originally from Abbeville, Louisiana, Lindsay attended Loyola University in New Orleans, graduating magna cum laude with a Bachelor's degree in Political Science. After later receiving her Juris Doctor from Loyola University New Orleans School of Law, Lindsay moved back to Acadiana.

Lindsay is licensed to practice in all Louisiana state and federal courts and is a member of the Federal Bar Association, Louisiana State Bar Association, Lafayette Bar Association, and Louisiana Association of Defense Counsel.

Lindsay was awarded the 2010 Louisiana State Bar Association Young Lawyers Section Pro Bono Award for her extensive pro bono work in the Lafayette community and the 2011 Lafayette Volunteer Lawyers Outstanding Attorney Award. In addition, Lindsay was named Super Lawyers Rising Star 2016. She also serves on the Lafayette Volunteer Lawyers Committee for the Lafayette Bar Foundation and is an Executive Board member of the Lafayette Young Lawyers' Association.
