

Nicole Fluet | Associate

A native of the Tampa Bay area, Nicole Fluet practices in the areas of insurance defense, construction defect, first-party property, intellectual property, and foreclosure.

Nicole graduated from Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida with a Bachelor of the Arts in Sociology. She received her Juris Doctor from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. While at the University of Florida, Nicole was the Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Technology Law and Policy and the Internal Relations Chair of the Admissions Student Recruitment Team. She continues to be involved with the University of Florida as an alumni member of the student recruitment team.

Nicole is licensed to practice in Florida. She has published an article on occurrence trigger theories for Florida first-party property cases in the Trial Advocacy Quarterly and has presented seminars on a number of topics including ethics, negotiation strategies, and sinkhole litigation updates.

In her spare time, you can find her reading and traveling with her husband.
