

Sarah M. Baggett | Director

Sarah M. Baggett approaches her general litigation practice with an eye toward personalized service and frequent client communication to produce effective results in an efficient manner. Since graduating from University of Florida College of Law, where she was a member of the State Champion Trial Team, Ms. Baggett has successfully tried cases throughout Florida. In recent years, her practice focus has included first party property, construction defect and general liability defense.

Ms. Baggett is a native of Jacksonville and prior to joining the Tampa office of Galloway Johnson, practiced insurance defense with firms in Jacksonville and Stuart, Florida. She is admitted to practice in all state courts in Florida, as well as the Middle and Southern District federal courts in Florida. Ms. Baggett is a proud Barrister Member of the Tampa Bay Inn of Court.

In her free time, she enjoys rooting for the Gators and supporting Young Life.
