

Galloway Announces Seven New Directors

Galloway is proud to announce the election of seven attorneys to Director. David Burr, Nathan Burrow, Jason Freas, Andrew Krone, Alexis Mays, Ryan O'Connor, and Jeff Siemann take on their new role, effective January 1, 2022.

“The seven attorneys selected to become directors in 2022 are first-rate lawyers who will further our commitment to excellent client services. This is an exceptional group, and we are proud to have them as directors in the Firm,” remarked Jason P. Waguespack, Galloway’s Managing Director.

David T. Burr

David T. Burr practices commercial litigation, corporate transactions, insurance law and defense litigation. David represents companies from pre-trial through appeal, with an eye toward long-term, cost-effective case management and achieving his clients’ business objectives. Also licensed in New York, David’s legal practice began in Manhattan, where he focused on corporate law and business immigration.

Nathan L. Burrow

Nathan L. Burrow practices in the area of insurance litigation with an emphasis on premises liability, commercial trucking and workers’ compensation claims. With more than a decade of experience defending insurers and their insureds, Nathan has the knowledge and skill necessary to guide his clients through the litigation process from initial case intake to appeal. Moreover, his skills are not limited to the courtroom.

Jason M. Freas

Jason M. Freas focuses his practice primarily in the areas of property and casualty defense, trucking and transportation, insurance coverage litigation, and professional liability defense of realtors and brokers. Jason routinely presents for the Louisiana Realtor’s Association and is a member of the Inns of Court, the Louisiana Bar Association, New Orleans Bar Association, and the 22nd Judicial District Court Bar Association.

Andrew Krone

Andrew “Andy” Krone has experience handling all aspects of cases involving trucking and transportation, personal injury, construction defects, premises liability, and general commercial litigation. Andy also has experience beyond the practice of law. Prior to his legal career, Andy spent time in the banking and finance arena.

Alexis L. Mays

Alexis L. Mays works out of both our Mobile and Pensacola Offices, defending cases from Jacksonville to Huntsville. Alexis concentrates her practice in the areas of construction defect litigation and professional liability, defending general contractors, subcontractors, professional engineers, real estate agents and brokers, appraisers, attorneys and other professions against claims brought against them.

Ryan D. O’Connor

Ryan D. O’Connor focuses primarily on insurance coverage, transportation and trucking, and premises liability. Ryan is admitted to practice in all Louisiana state courts, all Maryland state courts, all of the United States District Courts in Louisiana, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

Jeffrey J. Siemann

Jeffrey J. Siemann concentrates his practice in the areas of insurance defense, professional liability, premises liability and construction litigation. Jeff is admitted to practice in all Louisiana state courts, United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana and United States District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana.

Galloway, Johnson, Tompkins, Burr & Smith was founded in 1987 and has grown to include 12 offices and over 130 lawyers, with locations across the Gulf South and Midwest. Our attorneys excel in multiple practice areas serving prominent local, national, and international businesses and insurers.

###